CME ACCREDITATION ENVISAGED

2nd ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Friend Lymphologists,

We are living an inedited sanitary emergency, COVID-19 pandemic. This situation has conditioned many aspects of our life, health, family affections, work and the world economy. In the same way, the conference activities have also been interrupted.

Although there is still no prediction of a possible return to an almost normal situation, the President of the Congress, together with the Scientific Coordinator, myself and the members of the Executive Committee have decided to set the new dates of the congress on March 25-27, 2021. We all intensely desire to be able to meet again, to exchange our scientific opinions, to stay together even on convivial occasions and to continue the activity of our society, with the aim above all to update ourselves on new scientific researches in the lymphological field, stimulating the participation of young lymphologists, and expand lymphological knowledge all over Europe.

The 46th CONGRESS OF EUROPEAN SOCIETY OF LYMPHOLOGY, which Marina and Sandro are planning with considerable organizational efforts, especially considering the current pandemic, will certainly be an opportunity for the growth of the ESL under different points of view. Furthermore, a group of the Executive Committee, under Pierre's guide, is working to update the Statute of the Society by adapting it to the new Belgian regulations, being the administrative venue of the ESL in Belgium.

Finally, I am really pleased to invite you all to our next meeting and I would like to send my warmest wishes for good health and return to normal as quickly as possible.

Francesco Boccardo
ESL President
